Recreation Center Can Make Narberth Home of Championship Sports and Athletics

WILL BRING BACK THE DAYS OF OUR BOROUGH'S BASEBALL GLORY
—ALSO THE HEADQUARTERS OF SCHOLASTIC SPORTS—THE VAL-UE OF ATHLETICS TO THE INDIVIDUAL AND COMMUNITY

Do you believe in outdoor sports and athletics?

Then vote "Yes" on the Bond Issue—The "Less Than A Mill" Bond Issue when you go to the Polls on Election Tuesday, November 8.

Would you like to see our town of Narberth, the home town of the champion baseball club of the Main Line?

Then vote "Yes" on the Bond Issue on Election Day.

Would you like to see Narberth the center of sports and athletics in this locality?

Then vote "Yes" on Election Day.

For all these things will be possible with the new Outdoor Recreation Community Center.

Sports Good For Everybody.

More and more every day people are coming to realize the important part that clean, wholesome outdoor sports and athletics play in building and developing individual and community health and morality.

Narberth is a big suburban community. It is a growing community. It has many, many worthwhile assets.

But it lacks one very vital thing! We haven't the facilities for outdoor sports, athletics and recreation that we should have.

Let's have these facilities. We can't hope to realize the full possibilities of a modern and thoroughly satisfactory home town, if we haven't them.

The proposed Outdoor Recreation

Community Center will do for Narberth just exactly what Narberth needs—and do it at nothing else can.

The $20,000 bond issue, "The Less Than A Mill" bond issue, which will be submitted to the voters for their approval at the Election on November 8, will provide the funds to acquire the six acre tract of land and develop it into just such an Outdoor Recreation Community Center as Narberth needs.

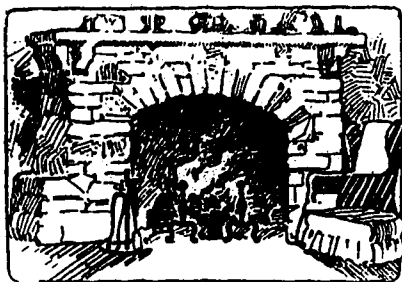

Championship Baseball Again.

Take the question of baseball alone, although the Outdoor Community Center will provide facilities for practically every kind of sports and outdoor athletics.

There was a time, a few years back, when Narberth was noted from one end of the Main Line to the other, and throughout all of Philadelphia's suburbs, as the home of a championship nine, one of the best and fastest amateur baseball clubs in the East. Our Borough wasn't as closely built up then as it is today. There was space within the Borough for a regulation ball field. There was space for spectators.

And believe us, Narberth played real ball in those days, and Narberth people turned out in crowds to attend the games and root for the home team. It was fine for the young men who played and it was fine for the spectators, for

THE FIRESIDE

Mr. Alexander Chambly is now living at 207 Elm Terrace.

Mr. J. C. Davis and family have moved to 227 Forrest Ave.

Mrs. C. H. Wheeler, of Narberth, is staying at the Ambassador at Atlantic City.

Miss Eleanor Brown, formerly of 309 Grayling Ave., is attending Miss Conklin's School in New York.

Our Town acknowledges with thanks a contribution toward the support of the paper from the Narberth American Legion Building and Loan Association.

Mrs. G. D. Wader, who has been spending the past three months with her sister in Cleveland, returned last Tuesday to her home, 102 Hampden Ave.

Do you believe the Golden Rule is workable in business? Read what Mr. Arthur Nash, a business man of Cincinnati, has to say about it in the October American, and then come and hear the subject discussed in the Presbyterian Church tomorrow night.

Mr. and Mrs. Robley A. Warner, of North Narberth Avenue, have returned home from a three weeks' motoring trip through Virginia and Tennessee, which included a visit to the Luray Caverns and the Natural Bridge. On their return they spent a few days at Mrs. Warner's home in Chambersburg, Pa.

The following were the guests of Miss Charlotte A. Hillegas, of Elmwood Ave., last Friday evening: The Misses Marie and Hildegarde Geyler, of Narberth, and Miss Marie Lloyd, of Rosemont. Messrs. Winfield H. Cook, Narberth, and Charles and Robert Hoffner, Louis Goldbeck and Walter Ward, all of Noble, Pa. A most enjoyable evening was spent by all.

Metropolitan Rapidly Being Sold Out For Nov. 8 Concert

The Narberth Choral Society Management has received word from the Holiday House Committee that subscriptions are being filled almost by the minute for the Choral Concert to be given in the Metropolitan Opera House on November 8.

Lucy Marsh, as soloist at the evening, is attracting numerous admirers, who are devotees of her Victor records.

John Richardson will also prove to be a drawing card, as usual, with his phenomenal artistic technique. It is interesting to know that within the past few months this boy wonder has been made a gift of a genuine Stradivarius violin by an ardent friend. This is one of the finest of the old makes, impossible to imitate, and the precise cause of its superiority has never been satisfactorily explained.

Master Richardson will use this violin at this concert.

As announced previously, the Victor Orchestra will accompany the Chorus and play several selected numbers.

Some of the box holders for this concert will be Mrs. Geo. B. Bailey, Mrs. F. W. Brill, Mrs. Geo. W. Barry, Miss Mary K. Gibson, Mrs. P. A. Castner, Mr. Benj. Chew, Mrs. E. J. Fisher, Mrs. Percival Fiedler, Mrs. Wm. A. Jones, Miss Marie Converse, Mrs. Carol Downes, Mrs. Arnold Arman, Mr. C. B. Clifton, Mrs. Elisha Oakford, Mr. A. Pomerantz, Mrs. Robt. Steel, Miss Joe J. Ryan, Mrs. C. Nathan Edwell, Mr. A. H. Gearing, Mr. Louis Koll, Col. Samuel Lit, Mr. L. M. Clayton, N. S. Belding, etc.

One well known Realtor of our live wire borough has thrown his influential interest into the assured success of this concert, and ordered a hundred or more tickets to be distributed among his friends and business acquaintances. "For the purpose of showing just what this town of ours can do and how progressive it really is," says one of the Realtors.

For reservations, telephone Miss E. L. M. Hawkins, Chairman of Holiday House Committee, Ardmore 1087. Mrs. Fred E. Derby, Narberth 386-R, or apply to any member of the Choral Society.

Opening Luncheon of The Community Club An Enjoyable Affair

NEARLY EVERY MEMBER OF WOMEN'S GROUP PRESENT AT FIRST EVENT OF NEW SEASON

What was it that the Community Club said that they were planning to do at their annual luncheon in October? "Open the club year!" Well, they did it last Tuesday, one hundred and forty of them, including their distinguished guests, Mrs. H. S. Prentiss Nichols, ex-president of the New Century club; Mrs. S. Blair Luckie, president of the Eastern District, and Mrs. Herman H. Binney, president of the Philomathean Club, as well as the presidents or alternates of many other clubs of the vicinity.

They did it on schedule, too, at 1:15, or if it were a minute or two later, no one noticed the fact, because the time set aside for the greeting of old friends and new was so pleasantly passed that no one thought to consult her watch when the signal was given for entering the dining room.

It took considerable self-control to wait patiently for the table assignment, in the face of the alluring display which the room offered. Tables which Mrs. Jacobs had collected and which she and her able corps of helpers had covered and set, greeted the guests first, and then the decorations, or was it the tables and decorations, all at once? However it was, it is certain that Mrs. Dothard's beautiful arrangement of leaves and hydrangeas in their fall coloring, together with the cut flowers which adorned the tables, produced a delightful effect.

Never before in the history of the club had so large a number of people gathered at a club luncheon, and there was something so stimulating in the numbers, in the wonderful day itself, in the appearance of the room even before the lunch was served, that every one was in a fine holiday spirit. And when lunch was brought on, satisfaction reigned; crowned chicken in patty caps, for which acknowledgment is made chiefly to Mrs. Batchelor and Mrs. Haws, rice croquettes and peas, for which congratulations are due Mrs.

Dr. Norwood to Speak Here Oct. 24th

OPEN MEETING FOR ALL MEN OF NARBERTH UNDER AUSPICES OF LOCAL AMERICAN LEGION POST

The Legion post is happy to announce that it has secured Doctor Robert W. Norwood, of the St. Paul's Memorial Church, of Overbrook, to address a meeting on Monday evening, October 24, at Elm Hall. All men of Narberth are cordially invited to the meeting. Doctor Norwood will discuss matters of great interest to all of us. Certainly no introduction is necessary for the speaker of the evening, whose name is known throughout the length and breadth of the land.

Come early to be sure to get a seat. Remember the date—Monday, the 24th, and make special note of the time, 7:45 P. M.

Playground Project to be Explained.

There will also be a speaker on hand to explain the playground project which will be voted upon at the borough election on November 8. The social committee of the Legion is planning several entertainment features to round out what will be one of the big meetings in the season's program. Look in next week's issue for further details of the meeting and remember that all the men of Narberth are invited.

RECENT GIFTS TO THE LIBRARY.

Prof. Henry Gibbons, of Essex avenue, has recently given to the Library a number of reference books which will help increase the efficiency of that department. Mrs. Conly, of Windsor avenue, has been contributing at intervals a number of the later works of fiction, while Mr. William Livingston, who has been a generous donor since the opening of the Library, has within a month given a dozen of the latest popular novels. Every week, through the kindness of many people, the Narberth Community Library is increasing its facilities for serving.

Good-Bye Dahlias Until Next Year

FINE EXHIBITS AT FLOWER SHOW
LAST SATURDAY END SUCCESS-FUL GROWING SEASON

The Flower Show Committee in setting October 8th as the date for our Fall Flower Show just beat Jack Frost by four days.

Despite very bad weather conditions, the flowers shown were unusually good, although not as plentiful as last year.

The Strawbridge and Clothier Silver Cup was won for the second time by Frank A. Clark, who still wears the crown of the Dahlia King. Several dukes, however, are on his trail. Second prize in this open to all class went to R. J. Edgar.

Mr. Henry Rose gathered five blue ribbons and some other colors in the amateur classes, and won the large dahlia vase. Other winners among the amateurs were C. A. S. McClellan, C. Howard McCarter, and George D. Grover.

Mrs. Robert Dothard won the blue ribbon and a box of candy for the most artistic basket of outdoor flowers. Miss Ida Buckman won the blue ribbon for the best collection of outdoor flowers, arranged for effect.

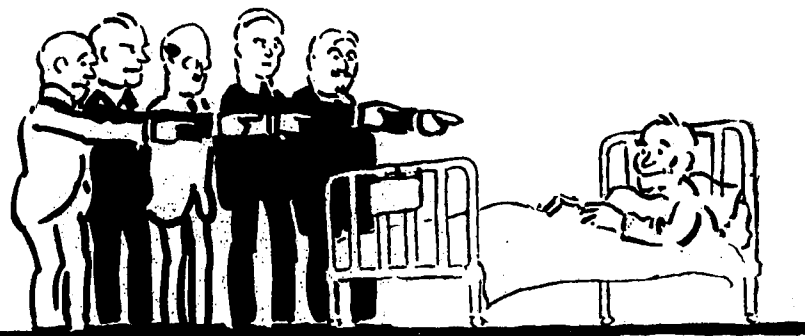

Among the children who won blue ribbons and cash prizes were, Mary MacIntosh, Ellen Kernan and Jean Staples.

The exhibits which won the merchants' prizes were exhibited in the windows of Howard's Drug Store, Davis's and the Betty Shop.

Plans are being made for a Spring Show in June and a bigger and better Fall Show next September.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. A. Perry Redifer, of Narberth, announce the engagement of their daughter, Bertha Cecelia, and Mr. Arthur Patterson Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Miller, of Steelton, Pa.

Editorial

OUR BIRTHDAY

With this issue Our Town begins its eighth volume.

Through seven years of successful existence, Our Town has preserved its original policy of serving every individual and organization to the best of its ability, and of depending on their cooperation for its success.

We begin a new year with a constantly increasing subscription list, the closer interest of our friends, and a growing spirit of civic unity manifested in the columns of Our Town.

The Editor hopes, and expects to make the new volume the largest and best yet published. Will you help?

DESERVED PROSPERITY

Mrs. R. F. Wood, librarian of the Community Library, tells us that well over a hundred persons used the library last Friday, which is certainly gratifying, even surprising, when we consider that it is still less than a year old.

The present Community Library originated in a small collection of popular books, circulated among members of the Women's Community Club. The fees obtained through circulation fees, and gifts, increased the number of volumes to the point where it was found practicable to open the circulation to everyone in Narberth. The further addition of the large Y. M. C. A. building library made available many standard works.

Now, with practically every modern popular book on its list, and an ever-increasing patronage, the Community Library promises to become one of the leading factors of our community life.

THE LAST MINUTE

There are many of our good friends, regular or occasional contributors, who almost invariably wait till the last second or a little later, to send in their copy.

Our printing schedule is so close that there is little opportunity to revise and correct manuscript and proofs, particularly when it all piles up Wednesday evening.

When the capacity of our columns is taxed, as it often is, early copy is usually given the preference in the matter of prompt insertion. Whenever you are able to do so, send in copy early.

Rational open air exercise promotes bodily health, mental vigor and spiritual serenity, enhancing the value of the individual to himself and the community. Dr. O. J. Snyder.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS FAVOR HOSPITALS FOR TUBERCULOUS

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 1st. The County Commissioners of Pennsylvania in their annual convention today endorsed the plan of providing hospitals for the tuberculous. The following resolution was passed:

"We, the County Commissioners of Pennsylvania, in annual convention at Harrisburg, Sept. 29-30 and Oct. 1, record our approval of the plan of providing hospital care for the many persons in each county afflicted with tuberculosis who are endangering family, friends, and community through lack of a place to be cared for."

The convention at the same time voted to name a committee of five commissioners to consider the question of hospital care for the tuberculous and those afflicted with other contagious diseases.

This action is in line with the new law of Pennsylvania which permits counties to erect and maintain tuberculosis hospitals and under which seven counties will have referendums next month.

MOVIES AT BRYN MAWR FOR SOCIAL SERVICE WORK.

"The New Wizard of Oz," "Mutt and Jeff," and "New Pictures" are all coming to the Bryn Mawr Theatre in a special production for children on Friday afternoon, October 21, at 3:30, and Saturday morning, October 22, at 10:30. This Eskay Harris Feature Film from New York will be a benefit for the Social Service Department of the Main Line Federation of Churches.

This social service work serves our local community and deserves your support. It is organized for efficient, friendly service to the community, without reference to creed or nationality. Please make checks payable to Mrs. Harold W. How, Memorial Building, Bryn Mawr.

BIG DOIN'S AT FAIRVIEW

Fairview Union Sunday School announces the opening of a Grand Fair to be held Friday and Saturday evenings, the 14th and 15th of October.

A cordial invitation is extended to all. There will be amusements and frolics to provide enjoyment for everyone.

Don't miss it. Come And Bring A Friend.

FIRST MEETING OF TENNIS AUXILIARY

A very important meeting of the Narberth Tennis Auxiliary will be held Friday, October 21st, at 3:00 P. M., in the club room on the tennis grounds. This is the first meeting to be held this Fall, and as there is a lot of business to be transacted, all members are urgently requested to be present.

FIRST FALL MEETING, KING'S DAUGHTERS

The Evangel Circle of King's Daughters held their first fall meeting Wed. Oct. 4th, in the Baptist Church.

Mrs. Fred Derby and Mrs. J. P. Withrow were the hostesses of the day and served a delicious lunch. Twenty ladies were present.

After lunch the president, Mrs. Fred Derby, opened the afternoon session with scripture reading and prayer. Delegates were appointed to the Montgomery County Convention at Pottstown, October 15th. It was voted to hold a rummage sale in November, so kindly save suitable material for the sale. If you do not want to keep it in your home call Narberth 386-R, and have it called for. Anything saleable, such as clothing, shoes, furniture, china or glassware, will be welcomed.

A circle member asked the circle for old muslins for the community nurse, as she has great demand for them. Kindly leave them with Mrs. Fred Derby, 106 Narberth Ave.

We have the greatest respect for grey hairs, except when they stick out from under a black wig.

Safety first—when in doubt—shut up.

Ash Collection

Starting with the week of October 17th, the ashes will be collected each week until further notice.

Kindly have tin cans and rubbish placed in containers separate from the ashes.

GEO. B. SUPLEE,
Street Commissioner.

ASH COLLECTIONS FOR 1921-1922.

On MONDAY ashes will be collected on both sides of Conway avenue, Narbrook Park, Wynnewood avenue, Sabine avenue, Wynnewood Court, Montgomery avenue, to Narberth avenue, Stepping Place, Elmwood avenue, west side of Essex avenue, and both sides of Dudley avenue, Windsor avenue, from Forrest avenue to Narbrook Park.

TUESDAY East side of Essex avenue, both sides of Wayne avenue, Price avenue, both sides of Narberth avenue, Montgomery avenue from Narberth to Iona avenue, Iona avenue from Montgomery to Woodbine avenue, Woodbine avenue from Iona to Essex avenue, both sides of Grayling avenue, and Forrest avenue.

WEDNESDAY Haverford avenue from Conway to Montgomery, Montgomery avenue from Haverford to Iona avenue, Woodbine avenue from Montgomery to Iona avenue, both sides of Williams avenue, Meeting House Lane, and both sides of Iona avenue.

THURSDAY All of the South Side.

One, without doubt, is Narberth's most important civic project. An outdoor Recreation Community Center is very necessary for moral uplift. Its administration by the Borough will distribute the responsibility among all residents, which should insure success.

Gibson Bell, Rector of All Saints P. E. Church.

WOMEN'S COMMUNITY CLUB PLANNING TO REORGANIZE DANCING.

The children's dancing class will be reopened as soon as definite arrangements can be made. An appeal is here made to the residents of Narberth to lend their support and enter their children, call Narberth 1638 M for particulars.

Every effort will be made to conduct these classes to the best interests of the pupils. Hostesses will be in charge of each meeting.

Masquerade Dance To Be Given By Tennis Association Octobe. 28th

The Narberth Tennis Association will give its first dance of the season Friday evening, October 28, in Elm Hall.

It will be a costume affair, and judging by the success that attended a similar dance last year, the party to be given a week from next Friday night, will be well attended.

Members will be supplied with tickets early next week, and those requiring additional tickets for relatives and friends may obtain them from Carl B. Metzgar, chairman of the Tennis Entertainment Committee.

The fact that the Tennis Association is giving its Halloween dance this year, on Friday evening, October 28, will leave the members free for Monday evening, October 31, the date on which Halloween will be generally celebrated, a night of family and children's parties in many homes.

FATAL ACCIDENT ON PIKE

Youth Killed and Five Injured When Truck Overturns

Rudolph Unger, sixteen, of Belmont Ave., Cynwyd, a student at Lower Merion High School, was fatally hurt, and his five companions injured when a truck, on which they were being given a "lift," overturned at Montgomery and Bryn Mawr avenues, Narberth.

The truck, driven by John Andrews, 237 Christian street, Philadelphia, overturned in a ditch when the driver skidded while passing another car. The occupants of the car were thrown out, and Unger's skull was fractured, resulting in his death in the Bryn Mawr Hospital Wednesday. The other boys were not seriously hurt.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS.

The third intercounty conference for the eastern counties will be held in the ballroom of the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel, Philadelphia, on Wednesday, October 19th.

Luncheon will be served at 12.30 noon. Subject for discussion, "Efficiency in Government."

Many representative speakers are on the program. All members and friends are invited to attend the meeting.

It is inconceivable that there can be any objection to the Outdoor Community Centre, but if there is, it is because all the facts of the case are not known. Everybody should get behind it.—Wm. S. Howard.

JUNIOR COMMUNITY CLUB HOLDS FIRST MEETING OF SEASON

An enthusiastic "first night" of the Junior Section, Women's Community Club, was held on Thursday evening, October 6th, at the Y. M. C. A. Added to the usual attendance of old members were representatives from several other Junior Sections, and a number of Narberth girls hitherto not members of the Club, but sure to be enrolled after enjoying the pleasures of one of the meetings. And the meeting proved very attractive to offer as a "sample" of our interesting programs and good times.

Some of our very clever "home talent" was demonstrated when Miss Madeleine McCoy rendered a very lovely piano selection, and Miss Augusta Witherow sang. Mrs. Foote, of the Senior Club, also sang very beautifully, and the President of the Seniors, Mrs. Batchelor, gave the girls a friendly word of welcome and good luck for the coming year. Mrs. Ross, who is greatly interested in the Senior Glee Club, gave all the girls "who could in anywise carry a tune," an urgent invitation to join this branch of the Senior organization; to promote not only good music, but also good fellowship between the younger and older Clubs. Several of the Senior Chairmen from the visiting Clubs spoke, telling of their work and ambitions along both social and artistic lines.

The guest of honor of the evening was Miss Wanger, who spoke to the Club on "Vocational Opportunities for Women." Miss Wanger could not have chosen a more interesting or appropriate subject for her audience, for although many of the girls in the Junior Section have already chosen their paths in the intellectual, business or artistic world, there are nevertheless a great many whose choice of a vocation is yet to be made. And Miss Wanger drew back the curtain on many, many opportunities, most admirably suited, both as vocations, and avocations, to the young woman of today. Scarcely a possible opening to the modern girl was left untouched by Miss Wanger, and she made them all seem so attractive and so well worth working for that it would seem a hard matter to choose one from among such a delightful assortment. Naturally, Miss Wanger impressed upon the girls that anything worth having was worth working for, and that success, in the main, depended upon the amount of persistence with which one sought it.

The meeting ended with a friendly "chatty" time, during which ice cream and cake were served. The next meeting will be at the home of Miss Jane Laird, on Woodside Ave., and the Club hopes that the number of prospective members will be doubled, and that all old members will be there.

A civic improvement that promises to transform an eyesore on the map of Narberth into a thing of beauty and health-giving activities for young and old merits a hearty welcome, and should receive the active, ungrudging support of all public-spirited citizens.—R. F. Cowley, Rector of St. Margaret's Catholic Church.

THE FIRBSIDE

Miss Carolina D. Super spent a few days at White Plains, New York.

Dr. Lawrence Davis has moved to his new home, corner Axon road and Hampden ave.

Miss Ruth Haws has been confined to her home during the last few days with a severe cold.

Horace Wamamaker and family, formerly of 317 Grayling Ave., have moved to 111 Axon Road.

Mrs. Jeannette Chetwood, of 111 Iona Ave., arrived in Spain September 25, for an indefinite stay.

Mrs. John B. Brooks gave a bridge luncheon at the Chalfonte Hotel on Tuesday, Oct. 12th. Covers were laid for 24 guests.

Among the new arrivals at Narberth are Charles Pollock, 13 Montgomery Ave.; Mrs. Cassell and Mr. Henry Roth, residing at 315 Gordon ave.; and Mr. Chas. J. Gergh, 102 Axon Road.

Opening Luncheon of the Community Club An Enjoyable Affair

England, finger rolls and tomato salad, garnished with celery and parsley, which every one knew could have been done by no others than Mrs. Rich and her assistants, coffee, ice cream and cake which somehow seemed to speak of Mrs. Alexander and Mrs. Livingston. And the fine efficient service! That was due to Mrs. Stevens and her helpers. Those chocolate doughnuts, too, which every one thought such a treat, proved to be sheer advertising products, the sale of the recipe for which was a promise that in the future, near, it is hoped, the Community Club would serve luncheon in its own club house.

The state song signified the formal opening of the luncheon, followed by a prayer offered by Mrs. Batchelor, president of the club. Interspersed during the meal were various renderings of some of the old familiar songs with Mrs. A. B. Ross, chairman of music, at the piano.

The program was a most interesting one, and those who are in a position to know, were heard to express the opinion that never in their experience at club luncheons in this district had so brilliant a program been provided; and they marvelled and rejoiced at the honor accorded the Narberth Club by the presence of so many of the most prominent club women of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Luckie, whose place was first on the program, explained that since her experience in the polling places at the recent primaries, she had been able to think and speak of little else, and as a result, she advised very strongly that every woman acquaint herself with the laws regarding primaries and elections.

The important talk of the afternoon was given by Mrs. Birney, of the Philomusian Club, whose well chosen phrases and gracious personality greatly enhanced the power of her message. The key note of her talk emphasized the need of injecting a new motive into the military camps of the country, one which would encourage an expression of patriotism and service to one's country, not only in preparation for war through military training, but in preparation for peace through concentration on such problems as reforestation and good roads.

Mrs. Nichols, the godmother of the Club, in her usual felicitous manner, spoke of her affection for and interest in the Narberth Community Club, and exhorted the members to keep themselves well informed on all subjects, and to hold ever before them high ideals for their country, in the belief that in the club women of the country lies its safety.

Other speakers were Mrs. Gregory, of Bala Cynwyd, and Miss Elizabeth Latta, who came as a representative of Mrs. Garrigues, president of the Matinee Musical Society of Philadelphia.

The program was lightened by two musical numbers, one by Miss Ann Barclay who, to her mother's accompaniment, gave on her violin a very appreciative interpretation of the "Meditations" from Thais, and in response to an encore, a skillful and pleasing rendering of "Bohn's 'Perpetual Motion'." The club feels very proud of its talented daughter.

The other number was a group of songs by Mrs. John Tonkin, whose rich, sympathetic voice and charming personality met with spontaneous response. The group of songs called "Songs of Sun and Shade," included "You Lay So Still in the Sunshine," "Thou Hast Bewitched Me, Beloved," "The Rainbow Child," "Thou Art Risen, My Beloved," and "This is the Island of Gardens."

And so the club year was opened, and all who attended the opening saw prospects of profit and pleasure, saw fellowship and good cheer and co-operation, in the comradeship of women working toward a common goal, and felt a keener desire to live up to the high ideals of womanhood and citizenship so beautifully presented in the words of greeting given by the club president, Mrs. Batchelor, in whom was the inspiration for the success of the day, and in whom it lies for the promise of the year.

there is no game or sport that is inherently cleaner, more open and healthier, both for players and spectators, than baseball.

But of recent years baseball in Narberth has had hard sledding. As the Borough has grown, available playing space has disappeared. The climax came this past season when our ball club found it absolutely necessary to go outside the Borough to find grounds.

Popular interest, too, in local baseball, has waned. But that has not been because of any waning interest in the game itself. And it hasn't been because anybody thought that Narberth couldn't produce a championship team. But enough handicaps and obstacles will discourage any kind of endeavor.

Substitute Encouragement for Handicaps.

Remove those handicaps and obstacles, and in their place provide facilities and encouragement, and there's a different story to tell.

There'll be a different baseball story to tell in Narberth with the coming of the new Outdoor Recreation Community Center!

Will you help to make that possible?

You can by voting "yes" on the bond issue at the Election on Tuesday, November 8.

Let's put this project over with a whoop. Let's provide the ground that will make possible a championship baseball team in Narberth next summer and for every succeeding summer.

Let's provide the facilities that will make Narberth the center of amateur and scholastic outdoor sports and athletics for this whole district.

The ball players and the school athletes are ready and willing to do their part. They'll gladly give Narberth championship baseball and football teams, and the school boys will bring scholastic championships to Narberth.

This Is Our Last Chance.

But they can't do these things unless the citizens provide for them the necessary physical facilities. That's exactly what the bond issue to be voted on at the coming Election, will do.

There'll be no more chances to acquire such a tract of land in Narberth, for the very sound and very simple reason that "there ain't no more land" suitable for the purposes.

Are you for Narberth as the home of champion baseball, football and other kinds of athletic clubs and teams? Then vote "yes" for the bond issue.

Are you for making Narberth the center of amateur and scholastic sports and other outdoor athletics, along the Main Line? Then vote "yes" for the "Less Than A-Mill" Bond Issue when you go into the booth at the polling place on the second floor of Elm Hall, on Tuesday, November 8.
